WHOLESALE LYNCHING.

Five Men Rushed Into Eternity By an Indiana Mob.

YELLOW JACK SLOWLY SPREADS.

New Cases Continuing to Appear in the Stricken Parts of the South.

MURDERER ATTEMPTS SELF-DISTRUCTION.

Versailles, Ind., Sept. 15.—Five white men, convicted of robbery and numerous other crimes, were taken from the jail and lynched at midnight by an unknown mob. The mob was well organized and determined. They did their work quietly and efficiently. The city this morning is horrified at the terrible work, though there are many who approve of the mob's act.

Four other persons in jail will be lynched tonight. The mob is firm and is in possession of the town.

SLOWLY SPREADING.

The Terrible Scourge of Yellow Fever Flies Near Victims.

New Orleans, La., Sept. 15.—The terrible yellow fever seems to be slowly spreading in this city and new cases have been reported today. The quarantine is being rigidly enforced and the health officers are doing all that can be done to stay the epidemic.

New Orleans, La., Sept. 15.—The reports from the yellow fever districts up to midnight are as follows: Four new cases are reported in this city, making fifteen in the city, with nine other suspicious cases under investigation. Two of the thirty-five cases of fever at Edwards, Miss., have turned out to be yellow fever, and the people of Jackson, twenty-five miles away, are fleeing in terror. Three more cases have been discovered at Mobile, besides several others of suspicious nature, and the people are leaving in crowds. Chattanooga has become alarmed, and instead of offering a haven to refugees, has quarantined against southern cities. Atlanta is threatened with quarantine because it offered a refuge to fugitives. The government has begun fumigating the mail from infected towns. All Alabama towns are quarantined against Mobile. From

ALL IS QUIET.

But Additional Miners Are Rapidly Joining the Strike.

Indications That All the Mines in the Pittsburgh District Will Be Idle.

Hazleton, Pa., Sept. 15.—Despite a variety of planning rumors and a morning movement by a body of miners, which looked formidable yesterday passed off without serious disturbance in the strike region. Matters still wear such an uncertain aspect, however, that Gen. Golon declares the removal of the troops or of any portion of them has not been contemplated. The strike itself is spreading with great rapidity. Estimated estimates of the number of men who have quit work are hard to obtain, but conservative figures place it at close to 10,000, with indications that in a short time every colliery of importance will be idle.

A DESPERATE MURDER.

Escaped and When Captured Tried to Kill Me.

Atlanta, Ga., Sept. 15.—Ed. Egan, a man with the murder of the Allen family and sentenced to be hanged on Monday, escaped this morning from jail and when captured was trying to kill himself with a knife. He was, however, unsuccessful in his efforts to cheat the gallows.

FIRE AT CLINTON.

The Emerson building, valued at $1,500, was insured for $1,500. The story of the building, valued at $1,500, was insured for $1,500. The fire is supposed to have been incendiary.

A POPULAR MAN GONE.

Sad and Unexpected Death of Mr. Charles Roth.

HE WILL BE GREATLY MOURNED.

One of Paducah's Brightest and Most Popular Young Men Suddenly Summoned.

HIS LIFE—THE FUNERAL ARRANGEMENTS.

Mr. Charles Roth, the well known undertaker, died at 12:30 o'clock this morning at his home, 237 North Sixth street, of heart trouble and malaria fever, after an illness of only a few weeks. The death of this bright and popular young man has cast a pall of gloom over the city, for there was not a more highly esteemed or popular young man to be found anywhere. His illness was not deemed serious, and he was first up and then down, but at no time believed to be in danger.

Mr. Roth spent a week at Cincinnati, when he was first attacked by the malaria, but returned apparently the better. Last night his condition was worse, but early in the evening a crowd of his friends visited him, and he conversed with them in his usual happy vein for some time. About 10 o'clock he fell asleep, and the remainder of the family retired. About midnight Mr. Roth awoke and found Mr. Roth unconscious. Dr. Redick was immediately called, but before he arrived the young man was dead.

He was 26 years of age, and his birthplace was in South Mendon, Conn. He was born on August 1, 1871. He came to Paducah when 12 years old, having become an orphan, to live with his uncle, Mr. Frank Elmer. He became a member of the firm when 21 years old, and proved himself an efficient, energetic business man. Mr. Roth took a great deal of interest in secret lodges. He was Past Master of the Masons, Phil City Lodge, and was a member also of Paducah Royal Arch Chapter No. 30, Paducah Council No. 11, Knights Templar, and Paducah Nest of Owls, and of Paducah Belling No. 537, Eastern Mystic Circle. He was a large, virile, of the Ows here, and one of the leading Masons of this end of the river.

The deceased leaves two brothers and a sister. Mr. Fred Roth, of the city, Mr. Frank Roth, of Georgetown, O., and Miss Pauline Roth, of the city. He leaves several uncles, among whom is Mr. Frank Kellager, of the city. The time for the funeral has not been set, but it will likely be tomorrow. Relatives have been notified by telegram, and the remains have been embalmed.

Mr. Roth was democratic nominee for coroner.

A LOAD OF HAY.

Turns Over on That $30,000 Wreck of This.

And Jesse Pickler is Thrown Several Feet Upon the Hard, Rough Stones.

Jesse Pickler, of near Brooklyn, had a close call this forenoon on the wharf after the heavy boat had made her trip about 2:30 o'clock. He came over with a large load of hay, and in driving his team up the steep incline one side proved to be loaded too heavily. It toppled over, and three Pickler several feet on the hard stones, badly bruising him up. Fortunately, however, no bones were broken.

The hay was scattered and the wagon broken by the accident.

FAMILY TROUBLES.

A Case Investigated in the Police Court Today.

Two Schoolboys Recognized For Good Behavior—Only One Case in Court.

Family troubles were aired in the police court today. The principals resided on Clay street, and their trouble is between neighbors, as might be guessed. Mrs. Mary Williams was charged with using insulting language to wards J. W. Gilman and threatening to kill him with a brick. Her son, Henry Williams, and Dr. J. W. Red were yesterday fined $5 each, costs on $1 and costs, respectively, for using the same quality of speech to the same indignant citizen, whom it seems the neighbor was going along amicably. It appears that the trouble originated from an alleged statement of Gilman relative to Mrs. Williams and family.

EXPERT TESTIMONY.

Was Heard in the McGill Murder Case Today.

JUDGE BISHOP GIVES A DECISION.

Refusing to Admit as Evidence an Ante-Mortem Statement of Mrs. McGill.

SEVERAL OTHER CASES SET FOR HEARING.

Late yesterday afternoon Robert McGill, the alleged wife murderer, was on trial in the circuit court, was placed in the witness stand, and admitted to shooting the woman. He said, however, that it was done in sudden heat and passion, while quarreling over a deed he accused her of removing from his trunk, with a pistol he had taken out to clean and oil.

A question was raised whether or not to admit as testimony a declaration made by the woman the night following the shooting, in which she alleged to have said:

"Robert shot me; I don't blame him, though, and hope he will not be punished, as I do not love him and have done everything in the world to make him love me. But in spite of it all he has loved me and refused to believe me when I told him that I loved him."

VICTIMS OF MISHAPS.

Some New Cases Show the Dangers of Farin.

The Sewerage Works at the City Council, also Number of Accidents.

Conductor Will Foster, who is held up from a broken leg at his father's on Broadway, is slowly improving.

Tom Dugan, who fell from a horse's back yesterday, is somewhat better. His injuries are not thought to be serious.

William Cole, a colored employee of the water company, was painfully injured yesterday by a falling piece of machinery, one shoulder being badly crushed.

Tom Sams, colored, who arrived Sunday from Florida and went to work at the sewerage excavations Monday, had a finger on his left hand cut off yesterday by a "black" knife.

Mrs. Constance Elmer of Fair and Pleasant street, who was severely injured yesterday, is better today. She is said to have a bottle of medicine put on her arm. She has been held on at the city hall, she falling with the railing.

Will Karan, the 19-year-old son of Corcoran & Karan, who was accidentally killed by a horse on Monday, was worse today, and may yet have serious trouble with his spine. The wound was healing nicely, but he had obeyed the doctor's orders, and used it too early. As a result he found himself unable to walk a short time.

MEET THE MURDERER.

Dr. J. J. Holland, of the Graham-Scott hospital, has seen several cases of typhoid fever in his patients.

Several of these are serious, while one have already been a number of deaths in the neighborhood. There is a case never known since, and a number of cases in that section.

STOLEN SPANGLER GONE.

A Woman Alleged Has One Stolen at the Race Track.

A houseman named Allen, from Nashville, reported to Agent McGinnis yesterday that he had been robbed of a $100 diamond and a ring on a night of two ago. He had been sleeping in a room at the race track, and when he awoke he found the diamond and ring gone. When he awoke he had been robbed. The police have been able to find nothing of it.

LET THE RED FLAG.

Frightens Mr. Theodore Luttrell's Horse.

Mr. Theodore Luttrell, of the Woodville section of the county, met with an accident this morning on the Cairo road.

He was driving along near the powder magazine, when a boy ran in front of his horse with a red flag and frightened the animal. It ran away and threw Mr. Luttrell out, several painful bruises being inflicted on his head. He went to the nearest drug store and had them dressed.

GENERAL MANAGER POWELL.

Mr. W. W. Powell Is Manager of Hotel Gilbert.

Mr. W. W. Powell has been made General Manager of Hotel Gilbert, the proprietor. He has charge of the office in day time, Day Clerk, and has been transferred to the night watch.

Night Clerk Jackson is now in charge of the billiard hall.

Mr. Brian No Better.

Mr. W. H. Braxton's condition was not much worse than yesterday, but today was peacefully unaltered.

MURDEROUS RIVER MAN.

Second Mate Tom Allen Shoots a Rouser.

AFTER BEATING HIM SAVAGELY.

The Sheffield Again the Scene of a Probable Murder This Morning.

PHIL HOLLOWAY, NAME OF THE VICTIM.

A stalwart rouser slouched up Broadway about 5 o'clock this morning inquiring the way to the city hall. The matted blood almost obscured his features, and clotted gore besmeared his woolen shirt and covered his breast wherever it was exposed. He was directed to police headquarters by a couple of stationmen who were out exercising the fire department horses.

When he reached the hall he was given a good "soft place" on the police court room floor upon which to lie. He gave his name as Phil Holloway, of Eldersville, Ky.

He stated to a St. reporter that he had been beaten on the head and shot in the right shoulder by second mate Tom Allen, of the City of Sheffield. He said he had been kept at work on the boat all night before last, yesterday, and most of last night. The mate began threatening him because he was not working hard enough, and he made some remark to another rouser about being imposed on, which seemed to increase the second mate's rage.

He struck the rouser on the head, and as the latter started to run through the wharf boat drew his pistol and fired at him, the shot taking effect in the right shoulder, the driver's back being turned at the time.

The Sheffield is the same boat upon which one rouser was killed by another on the levee here a few weeks ago. It has the reputation of being the worst boat on the Ohio river for cut-throats and bullies, and it is said that a negro is killed aboard her on every trip.

Officer Sherman Phillips went down at 5:30 and searched the boat, but found no trace of Allen, although he went through the boat. He could get no information at all from any one and abandoned the search.

Allen is said to have been just recently out of the penitentiary, and is a very dangerous kind of man. Holloway, on the other hand, is well known to the officer, who says he is a bully, and had "ball do" all the other rousers ever since the boat left St. Louis.

His wounds were dressed by City Physician Williamson. The bullet could not be located, and left Holloway was removed to the house of a friend on Washington street he began spitting blood, and his condition was believed to be serious.

A warrant will be issued against Allen as soon as the rouser is able to swear it out.

PURE CARELESSNESS.

Comes Near Causing Serious Accidents.

No warning signal was left at Fifth and Harrison streets, where the sewerage ditch was several feet deep, with large piles of dirt on each side, last night, and as a result there were several accidents.

On account of the moonlight there was no electric light, and most of the hole was in the shadow.

Early in the evening a gentleman who did not give his name drove his buggy into it, badly injuring his horse, and this morning about 5 o'clock a sleepy marketer was traveling the even terror of his way when the residents near by were awakened by a loud crash, and upon investigation learned that vegetables had gone down.

Such carelessness is likely to get some one into trouble.

CREWS CLEARED.

The Men From Wickliffe Turned Loose by Uncle Sam.

Doe Crews, of Wickliffe, who was arrested and brought here two or three weeks ago for violation of revenue laws, was released by Commissioner Puryear late yesterday afternoon.

Crews is the man who said he couldn't get enough whisky to drink, much less to sell. The government witnesses could not attend, and as Crews had been in jail for two or three weeks he was released.

Mr. Crowl's Funeral.

WRITTEN AT RANDOM.
Prof. John Hobson says it is not advisable to be too polite under difficulties. He no doubt speaks from experience, for a few nights ago he tried it.
He was out with a serenading party. The musicians were in a large double-seated wagon, and stopped at the jail to charm the ears of the hapless felons therein. After the music had ceased, there was vociferous applause from the dark corners of numerous porches in the neighborhood, for most of the residents were yet up, and appreciated the treat. Prof. Hobson appreciated the applause, also, and being leader of the band, arose to make due acknowledgment thereof. Just as he got to his feet to bow, however, the horses started off, and in the sudden lurch he lost his equilibrium, tumbling backwards out of the wagon, and all—fell to the street in ridiculous confusion. He was rescued, however, and the serenade continued.
People living along the Illinois Central from Fulton to Paducah were awakened Sunday morning by the shrill whistle. It was something they had never experienced before, and as the simple country folk arose from their humble abodes and ran sleepily to the windows, the only reward they received for their trouble was to see the thick, curling smoke of a flying locomotive ascending through the moonlit tree tops, and to hear, in the far distance, the receding whistle. When the locomotive reached Mayfield it was still whistling, and the citizens, thinking a fire had broken out, rushed with the prevailing custom rushed out and began firing their guns and pistols to alarm the town. The train left Mayfield whistling, and forced into Paducah whistling. It pulled into Paducah whistling, and the whistling was continued by a detachment of the valve, which could not be repaired. The locomotive was changed here, but continued to whistle for forty minutes after the train had gone.
"I am inclined to think," remarked Dr. J. G. Brooks yesterday, "that his matter-of-fact way," "that those cities in most imminent danger from yellow fever are the ones for whose protection there has been appropriated a 'quarantine fund.'"
"You know," he continued sarcastically, "wherever there's a quar-

A Retrospect.
The ravages of age with its eventful happenings, constituting a life's history, fail to diminish a lively interest in memory of earlier days and to recall the incidents of those days, when as one of a family of children, brothers and sisters, the realities were all of cheer, and of sportive and pleasant character, with nothing to bedim or cast a shadow, and upon which grim age can look and smile, and encourage the wish to be, and see again. This renders old life, with its cares and wrinkles and pains, the effect of vicissitudes, more endurable, as it tapers toward the grave. Thus to which we looked in the halcyon days of young life, with expectation, trim full of hope, no streak to rain have been swayed in realization, and the old man, and woman now constitute what was once the boy, girl, young man and young lady of years ago. Changes such as those to which each life is subject, with its sorrows and gladness, fortune and misfortune, have overtaken those to whom reference is here made, and absence and separation for many years with the wasting torch of time has, as an inspiration born of a vivid recollection of the pleasures and delights of earlier years, induced a visit to and retrospective view of the old home and familiar marks of the old home place, two and a half miles from town, where we met a number, took dinner and supper, and at night engaged in an old Kentucky dance, in which all took part. The writer included, tripped the light fantastic toe, and engaged, amid the thrills of the music and the dance, in thoughts of the past, and we were, in retrospect, boys and girls again. On arriving at the place we beheld the old log mansion, still standing as it did of old, of course, somewhat dilapidated. In and around were many reminders of childhood and youth. Over the door of one room was still the old-time gun rack (two hooks), from which we had lifted the gun resting there a few brief times. One of my brothers and myself removed them, each taking one to preserve as a memento. Close by the house was the old well, with seemingly the same windlass and old oaken bucket and the moss that covered it, just as it was in appearance—and the water as cool and pure, tasting just as it did when we were boys and girls. There was spread out before us the large old farm, where, upon any part of the 500 acres open, a goose could be seen from the front door of the old mansion. Many of the features around the house were the same, chief among which was the old "chickadee" that stands on or near the back of Kolling, Park, where, in boyhood days, I have packed and ground hundreds of bushels of grain every season. This old mill stands upon the bank of this stream, forsaken—no miller, no sacks of grain, no tramp of horses, no rumbling of its appliances; only a picture of desolation, and the quiet stillness of the graveyard. Its timbers are worm-eaten and decaying, as if soon to totter and fall; from its roof the boards are slipping, leaving holes through which winds and rains can drift without hindrance; the cogs are decayed and missing from the great wheel that impelled the machinery, that will never revolve again. Much like the human life. Years ago it had its long period of prosperity and vitality, but is passed into decay and decay; and now, like the aged man, it seems bent with the burden of years; his hair whitened with the frost of many winters; his face marred and wrinkled with the foot-prints of time; his calling, once followed with profit, now put among the things of the past. The old mill has gone down, where once we indulged boyish sports, and wrestled, and jumped, and engaged in all the fun of youth—its place is supplied by the steam mill at the town, with all its appliances to meet the demands of a faster, and let us hope, a better age.
On the next day we dined with a lady friend and acquaintance in the town of New Haven, where everything was served in bountiful form, and in great elegance.
Next we went five miles to the home of a cousin, where we partook of a most sumptuous dinner, and in the same neighborhood took supper. Returned to town and the remainder of the time of my stay of ten days was spent in the town, from one friend's house to another, meeting everywhere the same courtesy and splendid manner of entertainment. The like I shall never see again. My time for departure having arrived, to avoid the pang of saying farewell to my friends, I quietly took my way from them while engaged in the most gleeful talk about things of the past, took leave of the old town, perhaps forever. They have separated now, and from my home in this beautiful little city, I send you brothers and sisters, the parting farewell, feeling that the lapse of another twenty-five years will not unite us again, but trusting that we may see each other again during the few years that may be allotted each of us. I say "Good-bye," and if we never meet again in this physical form, may we do so in the land of place where there is no parting.
The duty collected on the personal baggage of passengers returning from Europe during the month of August, in excess of $100 each, amounted to $46,892. It shows the extent to which foreign clothing has been imported in this way.
The electric third rail system which has been in full operation for more than three months between Hartford and New Britain, Conn., has not killed any person, though a horse and several dogs and snakes have been electrocuted by touching two of the rails at the same time. Even when the track is submerged the current performs its work, and it is believed that a speed of seventy miles an hour can be obtained without difficulty. It is certainly not safe to walk on the track where the third rail is laid, but it is no place for walking under any circumstances.

Made of select corn.

All manufactured and for sale by the undersigned.

Second-hand flour barrels, our own preferred, brought for cash at our cooper shop across the street.

We pay the highest cash price for wheat and corn. We also sell corn, bran and chicken feed and exchange any and everything in our line for wheat or corn.

Come to see us, or communicate with us, Street No. 220, South First, Telephone No. 316.

We paid our money at home for the raw material. Let us have some of it back for the manufactured article, so that we can continue to do business ourselves and at the same time help you. The money we pay out for grain and labor mostly stays in town, and the more our own people consume of our output the more we can make a market for home-grown breadstuffs and home labor. This makes money circulate, one transaction helps another, and so it passes from hand to hand, and the community is helped. Yours for good times.

To the Public:

Many of our customers have asked the question, "Why don't you move on Broadway, as you have as nice and as large a stock as any body?" Now we must answer the question. ### A GOOD MAN-OF-WAR.

They Say the City of Paducah Would Make.

The Crew All Sometimes Carry Guns, From Captain to the Rowers.

The United States government ought to charter the steamer City of Paducah and send her to Spain, should the latter get too gay. The City of Paducah would make an excellent gun boat, as the officers and crew all seem to be well provided with pistols.

While going up the river last week the captain, Mr. Kirkpatrick, shot twice at the St. Bernard watchman at the coal pile, and yesterday one of the negro rowers, who was captain of the watch, kicked a white boy called "Dutch Charlie" off the stage plank and then drew a pistol on him.

MR. HASSMAN

Takes Charge of Central Shops Tomorrow.

Deby to North-bound Passenger Trains on Account of Quarantine.

This is the last day Master Mechanic Chambers has charge of the shops. The change takes place tomorrow, and Mr. William Hassman, of Water Valley, Miss., is to succeed Mr. Chambers. This is authentic, and all statements relative to the probability of Mr. Lottrell, Mr. Lacey or Mr. Anybody else being master mechanic at Paducah are mere buncombe.

Mr. Hassman yesterday telegraphed here to know if Paducah had quarantined against Water Valley, Miss., as he desired to ship his household goods at once.

He accused the boy of stealing pistols, and after kicking the boy off the boat the boy drew a knife and the rowers promptly produced a pistol. Clerk Wayne Turner, of the sheriff's office, interfered and prevented a shooting.

Four or five of the negro rowers went around with miniature cannon in their pockets, the impression of which could be plainly seen, while some of the officers were in the same boat, and were several times warned that if they didn't take the guns out of their pockets they would be "quailed."

The first mate, Bart Davis, is just out of jail at St. Louis, where he was sentenced to sixty days by the United States attorney for assaulting a negro rowers.

The whole push appears to be out to king for trouble.

NAVIS DRIVEN

In a "Fish Story" Or Two of the Register's.

The statement in the "Register" that Foreman J. C. Jackson, who was shot at Stiles by Tom Corley, was still in a local infirmary was an error.

Jackson has been at work at Stiles since Monday, and his wounds have never occasioned him any trouble.

The statement that the colored laborers had been ordered to leave the neighborhood by the whites is likewise false, according to manager A. R. Ticknor, of the state factory.

SUITS FILED.

Noble, Overby & Co. yesterday filed suit against Krentzer & Neiman on a note for $190.95.

Miss Martha Leech, through Mrs. Cox, her guardian, filed suit for $310 due on a purchase note for a lot.

APPOINTED FOREMAN.

Mr. Wheelis Takes Mr. Abernathy's Place.

Officer William Wheelis was this morning appointed city foreman at the sewerage excavations to take the place of Foreman Abernathy, who was struck by a bucket yesterday, until the latter sufficiently recovers to resume work.

Mr. Wheelis' place on the street force is being looked after by Engineer Miles.
